

SCENE ONE: THE MARKET

Enter Jack with his cow, Daisy.

Jack: Hello children. I'm Jack and my poor old Mum has sent me off to market to sell our lovely cow Daisy and I'm very sad.

Audience reaction

Me and Daisy are good friends, aren't we Daisy?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: We don't want to part with her but what can we do? We've got no money. We're poor, aren't we Daisy?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: Everyone's poor in Got Nothing Village, aren't they Daisy?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: (Cries) Poor! It's cruel, isn't it?
Mum says I've got to get as much money as I can but I want to find her a good home, where someone will love her as much as I do, don't I Daisy?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: She's very intelligent, children? I bet you've never met a cow as intelligent as Daisy before, have you?

Audience reaction

Come on Daisy. Let's show the children how intelligent you are.
Now, let's give her a sum to do and she'll tap her hooves and give us the answer.
Are you ready Daisy?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: Okay give me a number under 10 children?

Audience reaction

Have you got that Daisy?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: Good girl! Now we need another number under 5 children

Audience reaction

Right Daisy, here's the sum ..... Tap your hooves and give us the answer, Daisy and show us how clever you are.

Daisy taps her hooves.

Jack: See! I told you she was clever and you are, lovely daisy.

SONG: DAISY, DAISY, SHE'S MATHS CRAZY

When Daisy was a calf (Moo)

She'd make the children laugh (Ha ha ha)

She'd come to school and moo hard at the gate (Moo)

She'd make a lot of din (Moo)

The Head would let her in (Come in Daisy!)

She'd come to study Maths and she was great (Wow!)

Daisy is a star (Twinkle, twinkle)

She deserves a big Hurrah (Hurrah!)

You'll never meet a cleverer cow than her (She's really clever, Miss)

Daisy's got a brain (Oooh!)

if you see her down the lane (Hello Daisy)

Let her know how proud we are of her (We're really proud of you, Daisy)

Chorus:

Daisy, Daisy. she's maths crazy

Moo Moo Moo Moo Moo repeat

The lessons were such fun. (laughter)

She got all her homework done. (Well done Daisy)

She'd get all the answers right and we'd all cheer (Cheer)

The teachers loved her too (Ah, isn't she lovely)

And her reputation grew (She's clever)

She kept on coming back year after year (Lovely to see you, Daisy)

Daisy is a star (Twinkle, twinkle)

She deserves a big Hurrah (Hurrah!)

You'll never meet a cleverer cow than her (She's really clever, Miss)

Daisy's got a brain (Oooh!)

if you see her down the lane (Hello Daisy)

Let her know how proud we are of her (We're really proud of you, Daisy)

Chorus:

Daisy, Daisy. she's maths crazy

Moo Moo Moo Moo Moo repeat twice MOO

Jack: Give her a big clap children!

Now, you can see how difficult it is going to be for me to part with my lovely, clever cow.

Now come on Daisy. Let's have a look around the market place.

Daisy: (Sadly) Moo!

Jack: Oooh!

Enter Bean man

Bean Man: Hey! That's a lovely cow you've got there, young man.

He strokes Daisy

Daisy: (Getting excited) Moo!

Jack: Here, children! This looks interesting.

Bean man: I'm looking for a fine cow like that?

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: (To children) Hey! How lucky is that? This man seems like a good person to sell my lovely cow to. He likes Daisy already and that's a great start.
Hello, I'm Jack and yes I am selling my cow.

Bean Man: Pleased to meet you Jack. I'm the Bean Man and I am sure I can offer you a good deal.

Jack: Well that's fantastic because the reason we are selling Daisy....

Bean Man: Daisy?

Jack: Yes.

Bean man: What a lovely name!
Hello beautiful Daisy!

Daisy: Moo!

Jack: She likes you, Bean Man, doesn't she children?
Anyway, the reason we are having to sell lovely Daisy, is because we are so poor.

Audience reaction

Yes we're all very poor in Got Nothing Village. My Mum wants me to get as much money as I can so that we can eat properly again.

Bean Man: Oh dear. That is a sad story.

Jack: Yes it is.

(Starts to cry and Daisy joins in. Bean Man consoles them.)

Jack: But I don't want to part with my lovely Daisy unless I can find her the best home in the world.

Bean Man: Well Jack, I think, if you sell your lovely Daisy to me, you will get enough money to eat well.

Jack: You mean I'll be able to have my very favourite Pizza.

Bean man: Er! Yes, if that's what you want.

Jack: It is, although my Mum's says I have to have 5 a day.

Bean Man: What Pizzas?

Jack: No, silly! Fruit and veg. That's what we have to do if we want to stay healthy. Isn't it children?

Bean Man: What is your favourite Pizza, Jack?

Jack: Oh Salami and Olives with Palma ham and loads of melted cheese.

Bean Man: Really? Well close your eyes, Jack.

Jack closes his eyes and the Bean Man magics a Pizza.

Open your eyes!

Magical sound

Jack: Wow! How did you do that?

Bean man: It was magic. Now I have 5 beans to give you for your cow.

Jack: 5 beans? My Mum would have my guts for garters if I took them back to her. She'd think I was stupid.

Bean Man: These are no ordinary beans, Jack.

Jack: Really?

Bean Man: No, you see, I am the Bean Man and these are magic beans, Jack.

Jack: Magic Beans? Wow!

Bean Man: Wow indeed! They could bring you a fortune.

Jack: A fortune?

Bean Man: Yep. You could have your favourite Pizza every day.

Jack: Really?

Bean Man: Really! Jack, I will look after your lovely cow Daisy.

Daisy: Moo!

Bean Man: And in exchange you can take these 5 magic beans

Jack: What do you think children? Should I do it?

Audience reaction

Ok then, I will.
Bean Man, we have a deal!

Daisy: Moo!

Bean Man: Good decision! Well done, Jack.

Jack gives Daisy a kiss and shakes the Bean man's hand. He gives Jack the beans.

Bean Man: Come on lovely Daisy I have a beautiful field you can graze in. It is full of the greenest and best grass in the world.

Daisy: (Excited) Moo!

They exit

Jack: Wow, children! I am really happy. Daisy has a wonderful new home with lovely green grass and I have 5 magic beans and a lovely Pizza to eat. I think Mum will be really pleased with me.

Exiting

Image magicing my favourite Pizza like that? Mum's favourite too. I'll share it with her.
See you later boys and girls!

SCENE TWO: JACK'S HOME

Mum: That Pizza was so lovely, Jack. Now that I have eaten something I can think straight again.

Jack: Great, Mum! We were really hungry, weren't we?

Mum: Yeah, son, we were, after all we live in Got Nothing Village.
(Sees children) Oh, hello children! I'm Jack's Mum. I didn't see you there, I was so hungry. You lot look well fed though.
It's a terrible thing hunger. I am ashamed to say that I haven't been able to feed us properly, on account of us being so poor and living in Got Nothing Village. (Cries)
What would your poor old father say, Jack, if he was here?

Jack: There, there!

Mum: So, Jack, where's the money you got for Daisy. I hope you didn't spend it all on that Pizza.

Jack: No, I didn't. It was a magic Pizza you see, wasn't it children?

Audience reaction

Mum: Did I hear you say magic, son, 'cos as you know, I'm going a bit deaf?

Jack: Yeah!

Mum: Magic Pizza? Don't be daft. That Pizza was real. I just ate it.

Jack: I know but the Bean Man, who is looking after Daisy now...

Mum: The bin men have taken Daisy! Oh, no! I hope they haven't thrown my lovely cow on the rubbish heap. She was all that we had. Go and get her back, Jack straight away.

Jack: No, Mum! (Louder) Not the Bin Men – the Bean Man!

Mum: Oh! (Puzzled) Whose he when he's at home?

(Jack speaks in her ear!)

Jack: Mum, listen! Daisy is with the Bean Man, who is a good person.
Isn't he children?

Audience reaction

He magiced the Pizza for us because I was feeling hungry.

Mum: What's all this twaddle about magic?

Jack: (Frustrated) If you had been there you would understand what I am talking about.
Anyway, he gave me 5 magic beans for Daisy.
